

Lincoln-Way Jr. Spin Club

The Lincoln-Way Junior Spin Club is a fun way for Junior High students to learn about dance and color guard. The Spin Club will be led by members of the Lincoln-Way High School Color Guard.

When: Wednesdays from 4:30 – 6:30 p.m. January 15-March 4, 2020

Where: Mokena Junior High School Commons

Cost: $50

Checks payable to LW Music

The Spin Club will work on dance and flag technique. The emphasis will be on fun! The final performance will be Friday, March 6 at Mokena INTERMEDIATE School along with other Lincoln-Way Winter Programs.

Practice clothes should be comfortable that allow for dance movement (preferably black or dark colored).

To join please contact Carol Garcia (contact information below) before the first practice and come to the first class with a completed registration form (forms will also be available that night). No prior experience is needed.

If you have any questions, please contact Carol Garcia at 708-308-9007 cgarcia@lw210.org. We look forward to seeing you!
