

LINCOLN-WAY
MARCHING BAND

2019 SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

ONE BAND. ONE SOUND. ONE COMMUNITY.

Lincoln-Way is proud of its longstanding success with marching bands since the Marching Knights were first formed in 1974. As new schools were added to the Lincoln-Way #210 District, each spawned a new marching band prepared to carry on the tradition of Lincoln-Way's solid reputation.

In 2016, the bands reunited as one single Lincoln-Way Marching Band, and after three years, the band quickly made a name for itself among nationally-acclaimed marching bands. Recent accomplishments include: 2016, 2017 & 2018 State of Illinois Invitational Marching Band Class 6A Champions; 2017 Bands of America Indianapolis Super Regional Finalist; 2018 State of Illinois Invitational Marching Band Grand Champion; Fourth place at the 2018 Bands of America St. Louis Super Regional.

On January 1, 2019, the band stole the spotlight at the 130th Tournament of Roses Parade when it was forced to pass a burning float on national television. In November 2020, the band will take the national stage again at the Macy's Thanksgiving Parade, in NYC.

Attaining these titles and invitations does not come easy. The 200-member ensemble, made up of students from Manhattan, New Lenox, Mokena, Frankfort, and Tinley Park, spends long hours perfecting the show. Small groups of students begin honing their skills during the winter months, and the band usually begins preliminary rehearsals in spring. Over the summer, there are many full days of band practice from sunrise to sundown.

Marching band is unique in that performances require tremendous skill and dedication from every member throughout the entire show. Everyone is a starter, and no one sits the bench. It instills pride, teamwork, self-discipline, perseverance, physical and mental stamina.

The production of the show, transportation of the kids, props, uniforms and sound all create a need for financial support. Without the patronage of the Lincoln-Way community, it would be nearly impossible to sustain the current level of competition. We hope you will consider one of our sponsorship levels to not only help our great kids, but also to promote your business to the fine families and friends who attend our events. We offer several levels with corresponding benefits.
